

The Giddings News

March 7, 1941

McDADE SCHOOL HOUSE
BURNS

The McDade school building was destroyed by fire Thursday of last week. The fire started in a lower room on the east corner and was discovered so late that the building could not be saved.

It was a two-story brick building erected in 1908, with class rooms for four teachers and an auditorium. The school of 103 students will be continued in some public building.