

McDADE NEWS

Mrs. Frank Creel

McDade received one inch of rain Saturday with some hail, but no damage.

On Sick List

Mrs. L. R. Hoskins has virus pneumonia.

Mrs. Ford Taylor's eye is improving. She is under treatment of an eye specialist in Taylor.

Willie Watson is home from Louisiana to have his teeth extracted.

Expires

Joseph Sylvanus Cottle, 96, former resident of McDade, died Sunday in the Fleming Memorial Hospital. He was a native of Bastrop county.

Burial was in the McDade Cemetery.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Geo. Pratho, Houston, Mrs. Lilla Cottle Fields, Austin, Mrs. Jess Sanders, McDade; three sons, Preston Cottle, Austin, Albert Cottle and Morris Cottle of Elgin.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Smith, Melvin Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Creel attended the funeral of Gordon Jordan at Beaukiss Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Quintus Hoerman and Francis visited in the Frilby Hoerman home in Austin Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Creel was a recent visitor of her sister in Austin. Mrs. Grace Nance, who had an accident. She is improving at the Victor Brown home near Austin.

Mrs. Ruth Groves was in Elgin Saturday to see the doctor.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Ross were Taylor visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilson of Llano visited in the Willie Wilson home Sunday.

Wesley Free was able to be moved from the hospital in Elgin to the Clyde Clayton home near McDade where he is improving after a heart attack.

Dixon Smith returned to Houston after a visit with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Logan of Houston visited in the Jesse Mills home Sunday.