

McDADE NEWS

Mrs. Frank Creel

Honored

The Austin Statesman carried a very interesting write-up about Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Kowierschke of Austin, medical technicians at St. David's Hospital.

Mr. Kowierske is a nephew of Mrs. Arthur Behrend of Route 1, McDade.

There were pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Kowierschke at their work in the hospital.

PTA Entertains

The McDade P.-T. A. entertained the Paige P.-T. A. and the First Aid Class of Mrs. John McGee.

The supper was served to a large crowd.

Games were played and skits put on by the first aid class which received their cards. There were 25 in the class. They presented Mr. and Mrs. McGee with a gift in appreciation for their service in the teaching this class.

Surprise Supper

McDade Baptist Church had a supper and presented Miss Joyce Farris with a surprise graduation gift last Wednesday night.

Miss Farris will graduate from Elgin High School this term.

The covered dish supper was served on the church lawn by the ladies of the church. A nice crowd attended. The Rev. Gothright presented Miss Farris with her gift. She thanked every one in her quite and charming manner.

Interred

Alfred Lindley passed away at his home here Sunday morning, April 30. He was laid to rest in the McDade Cemetery. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Gothright at the McDade Baptist Church. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Francis Lindley; one step son, Melburn Creel, and three granddaughters.

Rain

McDade received 4 inches of rain, some hail and high winds last Tuesday.

On Sick List

Mrs. Iona Dungan is in Elgin Hospital with an infection in her foot.

Mrs. Ida Stewart is reported ill in Giddings.

Mrs. L. A. Hoskins, Mrs. Milburn Creel, Ollie Mundine and Mrs. Ford Taylor are home from the hospital and doing fine.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Will Schultz have moved here to make their home here.

G. P. Creel of Elm Grove visited in the Frank Creel home Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ross and son of Austin visited in the G. B. Ross home Sunday.

Mrs. Gertrude Hillman was able to call on a few friends.

Miss Frankie Hackworth of Austin was a recent visitor in McDade.

Josh Browning will spend this week visiting in the Jesse Mills and Frank Creel homes.