

McDADE NEWS

Mrs. Frank Creel

Weather

McDade only had a light shower over the week-end. Corn and other crops here are pretty. Gardens are doing well. The ladies are busy canning.

Sick List

Mrs. Iona Dungan underwent a major surgery May 6 in the Fleming Hospital at Elgin. She is improving at this time.

Mrs. Ford Taylor is still improving.

Mrs. Gottright's mother is ill at her home in Missouri.

Mrs. Ida Stewart is home after being ill in Giddings for several days.

Mrs. Head is home after spending Monday in Anderson Clinic and undergoing a major operation.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Creel visited Willie Taylor's Pottery. It was very interesting. He has a nice business which he learned under the late R. L. Williams, when Willie was a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Dungan of Waco spent the week-end here. They also visited Mrs. Lona Dungan in Elgin Hospital.

Josh Browning returned to Waco after an extended visit here and in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Smith and children of Austin spent Mother's Day in the W. A. Smith home.

Mrs. Manahan of Liberty Hill visited her son and wife here Sunday.

Mrs. Ella Fleming was a McDade visitor Sunday.

Mrs. Dixon Smith and family spent the week-end in Houston.

Mrs. Quintus Hoerman and Juanice visited Mrs. Trilby Hoerman Sunday in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Schultz were Austin visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Creel of Bastrop were supper guests in the Frank Creel home Saturday night.

Mrs. Frank Zilker of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Orvil Nix and daughter, Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Winn and children and Mr. and Mrs. Kentric Stagner and children of Elgin spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Ada Wroe.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Mills of Fentress visited in the Jesse Mills home Sunday.

Miss Doris Ann Hersher visited her sister over the week-end in Houston.

Pfc. Frank Brown of Fort Bliss will be home the 16th of May.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown Jr. visited in Austin Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Winton Hoerman presented Mr. and Mrs. Quintus Hoerman and daughter with quite a few pounds of nice fish Sunday. Some of the steaks came off a 10 lb. cat, caught by Winton.