

The Giddings News

October 20, 1922

NEW PROSPECT LOCALS

Again we come with some more dry news. Wish it would rain, don't you neighbors.

Chas. Stork and family spent Sunday with O. H. Siegmund.

Miss Annie Levy left to teach the Hicks school which started Monday.

F. George and family, Adolph Lehmann and family, Henry Lehmann and family, Mrs. Lena Vernon and children, Walter Lehman's children and Miss Bertha Stork spent Sunday at Frank Lehman.

We heard that Charlie Mueller went to see his girl Sunday.

T. H. Gantt and family of Dime Box visited home folks last week.

Albert Harzke spent the week end at home.

The record of our Sunday school attendance was broken. We had a large attendance.

A crowd went to Flay Pond fishing Friday.

A crowd of the young folks went to the dance at Waldeck last Saturday, reported a large crowd lots of fun and plenty of good lemon pie. Lets all go next time.

Adolph Siegmund and Albert Lehman are on the sick list this week. Albert has the malaria fever.

Mrs. Daisy Gantt and Miss Falba Vernon spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Martin Lehman.

Herman Harzke and his son Awalt were in Giddings last Friday.

Fritz Nitzschke was on business at Ledbetter Friday.

W. H. Gantt spent Saturday at Ledbetter.

Don't forget the barbecue next Sunday and dance to follow. Be sure and bring your best girls. We hope to see old, young, fat, lean and everybody. We would like for the office seekers to come prepared to make us a speech. We are voters and the best man gets the place.

September Breeze.