

The Giddings News

February 29, 1924

New Prospect Locals

The road workers have worked road this week.

There was a dance at the New Prospect Hall a few weeks ago. All that attended reported a good time.

A Valentine party was given by the pupils, at the school house last Friday night. A large crowd was present. Cake and lemonade were served and everybody enjoyed the refreshments.

Miss Rosa Vernon who was attending College at San Marcos, came back Friday afternoon. She is sick with the measles. She is reported doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Esther Mattiza, teacher of this place, Mr. Edwin Mueller, Mr. Albert Lehmann, Misses Lydia Mueller and Elsie Lehmann, went to the dance at Paige last Saturday night. They enjoyed the dance and are anxious to go again.

Church services at the school house Sunday afternoon were conducted by Rev. Wm. Mueller of Giddings. Mr. August Siegmund was confirmed, and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Siegmund's baby was baptized.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Siegmund and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Siegmund and family were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stork and family last Sunday.

Mr. Charlie Nitzchke motored from Austin last week and spent the week end with parents.

Miss Hermine Bayer left for Austin last Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Gantt of Austin is a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lehmann and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Georgl and family, Mrs. Julia Pruegner and family, Mr. Albert Lehmann and Misses Esther Mattiza and Elsie Lehmann spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Fr. Lehmann.

Mr. Jacob Stork and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Stork and sons.

Two young men from Carmine were out driving in this community last Sunday. Wonder where they went?

Friday was a holiday, George Washington's birthday. The pupils of this school with the teacher went on a fishing trip and picnic in order to pay their respect to one of the greatest leaders of the United States.

A Reader.