

The Giddings News

December 5, 1941

NEW PROSPECT

The H. D. Club had their regular meeting without the agent Wednesday. They met at the home of Mrs. Ernest Sommer. After the program was given, the ladies quilted. A delicious lunch was served to the following: Mesdames Ernest Sommer, Randolph Lehman, Nolan Lehman, Walter Lehman, Hy. Siegmund, Oscar Siegmund and Joe Peters.

Relatives and friends surprised Mrs. Hy. Lehman on her birthday Thanksgiving afternoon. Those present were Messers and Mesdames H. Lehman, George Pfeiffer, Paul Spitzenberger, Sam Vernon, Robt. Stork, Frank Schram and daughter, Mrs. Julie Pruegner and family, Robt. Koerth and family, Awalt Koerth and family, Frank Georzi and Adolph Siegmund and families, Misses Alma and Hilda Lehman, Mrs. Lena Vernon, Willie Stork and Ralph Weerets.

Glenwood Vernon spent a few days with his grandparents at Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stork and family and Mrs. Monroe Baack spent Thanksgiving Day in Houston visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leo Stork and Monroe Baack.

Mrs. Annie Afflerbach and R. Z. and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Noack visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lehman Thanksgiving.