

The Giddings News

May 1, 1942

NEW PROSPECT

Harold Schmidt, Mrs. Randolph Lehmann and son, Ernest Sommer's children are recovering from the measles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schramm and daughter visited Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harzke Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schoenmann and sons visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommer Saturday night.

Quintus and Randolph Lehmann attended the auction at Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. Herman Harzke visited the sick folks a few times.

We sure did have a big rain. The crops all look real good. The gardens seem to have been hurt by too much rain.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meier and sons visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommer Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Harzke visited Mr. and Mrs. Gus Harzke of Carmine Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schulz visited Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sommer last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Els and daughter of this community have moved to Giddings.

The people here wish to express their sympathy to Mrs. Edward Schnell and daughter in their great loss of husband and father.