

NEW PROSPECT

Mrs. Sam Vernon

Honored with Party

Mrs. Randolph Lehmann entertained with a party honoring her son, Lynn, on his 7th birthday Wednesday evening. Games were played throughout the entire evening. Refreshments were served to about twenty-four guests in the late afternoon. Lynn received many nice gifts.

The following were present for the occasion: Carolyn Patsy, Pat, Peggy, Margie, Judy, Connie, Charlotte, Jean, Bobby, Wayne and Lynn Lehmann,, Dennis Ray and Elaine Siegmund, Glennie Mae and Shirley Pietsch Bernice, Leroy, Gerline and Harley Goerlity, Gloria Ann and Lyndon Sommers, and Glenwood Vernon.

Observes Birthday

Mrs. Sam Vernon was honored on her birthday Wednesday night. About 60 guests called during the evening to partake in the celebration. Conversation and games featured the evening entertainment.

Personals

Sgt. and Mrs. Albt. Bamsch and Nancy accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Hulda Bleeker, have left for California after visiting in the Ben Pietsch home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Lehmann and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Quintus Lehmann and daughters spent Monday in Brenham. They attended the auction sale and were visitors in the city.