

The Giddings News

January 3, 1941

NORTHRUP

A very beautiful and impressive program was rendered Christmas Eve at St. Paul's Lutheran church by the school children directed by their teachers and assisted by the choir, and with the electric lighting in this beautiful historic church made it touching.

Dinner guests Christmas Day in the Herman Bigon home were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Noack, Austin, Oscar Urban and P. G. Noack and families, and Wednesday night Edwin and Ervin Noack and wives paid brief visits to Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Noack.

Mr. and Mrs. Isidor Mitschke visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Mitschke Thursday.

Those spending Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Droemer were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. and Helmut Droemer and Mr. and Mrs. Eric Mann, Houston, and Mary Beth Paulick and Marilyn Lyles, Austin.

Mrs. H. P. Weiser and children spent Christmas Day with Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Weiser, and Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kasper at Winchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Gersch and family and Mother Gersch visited in the Otto P. Gersch and Emil Steglich homes during the holidays, while Rev. Raymond Kasper of Vernon, Miss Grace, a student nurse, of Houston, and Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Houston visited with their parents Prof. and Mrs. L. O. Kasper.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Droemer Christmas were: Messers and Mesdames John Paulick, J. E. Droemer, Angel Martinez, Eric Magn, Eddie Fischer, James Hewitt, and Chas. Tschatschula.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Zoch, Houston, spent Christmas with his parents G. G. Zoch and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Dunk, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bamsch and son and Edgar Bamsch were recent visitors in the Bob Malke home.

Aug. Schulze spent Saturday with Aug. Mertink and family, Gus Mertink and family of Vernon also spent the day here.

C. T. Kasper and daughter Thelma and Martin Kaiser and wife, La Grange, took dinner Sunday with H. P. Weiser and family.

Mrs. Walter Droemer and son, Mary Beth Paulick and Marilyn Lyles, Austin, Aug. Schulze, and Chas. Tschatschula and wife, Theo. Gersch and family and Mother Gersch spent Sunday in the John Paulick home.