

The Giddings News

March 7, 1941

NORTHRUP

GLADY MIERTSCHIN

Baby Gladys Violet Miertschin was born to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Miertschin on Feb. 23, however their joy was soon ended when Baby Miertschin passed away on Saturday March 1st of pneumonia at an Austin Hospital where it was under the care of a child specialist. She leaves to mourn her passing her deeply bereaved parents and grandparents, Emil Miertschin and wife, John Miertschin and Aug. Jurk and families, also two brothers, Louis and Elmo Miertschin. She was laid to rest Sunday at 3 o'clock at Serbin with Rev. Herm. Schmidt officiating. Heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Fischer and son James visited in the Henry and Ewald Wenke home Sunday.

Mrs. E. A. Dunk is on the sick list and a speedy recovery is wished for her. Those visiting her Sunday were Henry Dunk, Sr. and Miss Lillian, and Mrs. Annie Tschatschula.

Miss Dorothy Malke took dinner Sunday with her friend Adella Zoch.

Dorothy Malke, Houston, visited in the Gus Malke home Sunday.

Enjoy "Dinky" Ride.

J. B. Gersch, Jr. and his pal Carlie Hohle enjoyed a "Dinky" ride to and from Northrup Monday. Come again some time boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Herm. Noack, Warda, visited with Mrs. Agnes Schiewart Sunday.

Visitors in the G. P. Mitschke and Johnny Noack home Sunday were: Ervin Mitschke and family, Houston, Martin and Herbert Mitschke, Warda, Gus Bamsch and family and part of the Herm. Noack family.

Enjoys 53rd Birthday.

Our neighbor Bob Malke enjoyed his 53rd birthday Wednesday with the following: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bamsch and son Rubin of Walburg, also Edgar Bamsch and Miss Edna Malke, Austin, H. P. Weiser and family, E. A. Dunk, G. G. Zoch, Otto Becker, Aug. Schulze, Chas. Tschatschula, Emil Synnatschk, Arthur and Arnold Mitschke, and Bennie Pietsch and wife, also her brother and sister. May she enjoy many more happy returns of the day.

Pvt. Theobald Gersch visited home folks Sunday.