

The Giddings News

April 25, 1941

NORTHRUP

First Arrival.

Mr. and Mrs. Herm. Menzel are the proud parents of a bouncing baby son since April 16th. Mother and babe are well and the young papa is all smiles. The babe was christened Sunday morning, receiving the name Melvin Elbert. Congratulations.

Mrs. C. T. Kasper and daughter Thelma were brief visitors of Mrs. H. P. Weiser Thursday afternoon.

Mathes, Ella and Alma Mertink called in the Chas. Tschatschula home Sunday night.

Enjoys Birthday.

E. Dunk was pleasantly surprised for his birthday Saturday night by relatives and friends. Those spending the evening with him were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zoch, and Robt. Dunk, Winchester, Henry Dunk S., and Junior, Miss Lillian, Warda, Rudolf Tonn, Manheim, Carl Zoch and family, Lexington, P. G. Tschatschula and wife, Giddings, G. G. and G. M. Zoch, Ernst Lorenz, H. P. Weiser, R. H. Malke, Aug. Schulze, has. Tschatschula, Johnnie Synatschk. At a late hour cake and refreshments were served. Games were enjoyed all during the evening.

News spread Saturday evening of the passing of Carl Lorenz of Greens Creek at a Brenham hospital. He was laid to rest Monday afternoon at Greens' Creek with Rev. P. C. Eiffert of Warda officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Zoch (the newly-weds) were Sunday visitors of his parents Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Zoch.

Student Victor Krause of Concordia College, Austin, visited his grandparents and other relatives at Serbin Sunday.

Mrs. J. B. Gersch, J. B., Jr., and Mrs. Hennington spent a while Thursday evening at Northrup.

Walter Droemer and family visited the Chas. Tschatschula's a while Thursday night.