

The Giddings News

September 19, 1941

NORTHRUP

27th Birthday.

Mrs. Herman Menzel in all quiet arranged for her husband a little surprise party Sunday night: Those enjoying the evening with them were: Prof. and Mrs. H. E. Weiser, Gerh. Menzel, Gus Malke, Johnnie Vogel, Ludwig and Alfred Menzel, A. H. Weiser, Oscar Urban, Mrs. Alvin J. Schulz, Chas. Tschatschula, Bob Malke, Martin Menzel, Louis Malke, Martha and Bessie Maud Schulz, Clara, Frances, Kenneth and Velma Jean Weiser and Doris Vogel. Games of domino and 42 were enjoyed, while Oscar Urban played several selections on his piano accordion which was enjoyed very much. At a late hour the hostess served coffee, sandwiches and cake. Everyone departed wishing Mr. Menzel many more happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Albert Schnell who has been at Pt. Arthur with her sick daughter Lillian arrived home Monday with her and she will have to remain home for awhile to recuperate from her recent appendectomy.

Monroe Steglich, Bastrop, and Mathes Miertschin, San Antonio visited their respective parents Sunday.

Herman Bigon accompanied by his son Arnold, Oscar Urban and Johnnie Vogel and Martin Schmidt motored to Walburg Sunday.