

The Giddings News

October 31, 1941

NORTHRUP

Son Born.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Becker are the proud parents of an 8 lb. son born Sunday morning. Mother and baby are both well. Congratulations.

Daughter Christened.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser was christened Sunday morning, receiving the name Carolyn Faye.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Thoresen and family of Austin and A. H. Weiser and family took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk and family attended Mission Festival service at Winchester Sunday.

Mr. Ed. Durrenberger, Sr. of near here had the misfortune of breaking his ankle Saturday afternoon as he attempted to jump a small ditch and slipped. He is confined to his bed for several weeks and a speedy recovery is wished for him.

Those spending an enjoyable day last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagner near Lincoln were: Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Moerbe and Paul Zoch, and Ervin Zoch, Giddings, John Paulick and wife, Sand, Herman Kieschnick and family, Miss Ruth Karcher, Miss Kieschnick and Miss A. Marburger of Lincoln and Miss Lydia of Austin.

Attend Diamond Jubilee.

Several families from in and about our community attended the 75th Jubilee Celebration of Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Round Top Sunday. Those noticed were: John, Martin and Emil Miertschin, Aug. Schulze, Mrs. John Synatschk, Edwin Teinert and family, Chas. Tschatschula and wife, Paul Medack and family, and Mrs. Anna Farrack. Texts for the afternoon were chosen from Psalms 111 and 147. Speakers were Rev. Harder of Houston and Rev. Brunotte of Carminc. From what the writer observed close to about 2000 persons were present. Dinner was served to everyone on the grounds by members of the congregation.