In a pretty church wedding Miss Louise Lehman Sunday became the wife of Ervin Schautschick. The bride's dress was of slipper satin trimmed in lace with pleated bishop sleeves and she carried a bouquet of white roses and fern. Her veil was caught up into a cap. She was attended by her sister Hermine as maid-of-honor dressed in peach satin and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Tusnelda Dunk and Frieda Zoch were bridesmaids, dressed in blue taffeta with pink rose bouquets. Little Junelle Dunk dressed in white moire and carrying a white basket strew flowers in the path of the bride.

The groom was dressed in a suit of soldier blue and was attended by Alfred Schautschick and Herbert Lehman as best men. Herbert Schautschick and Alvin Lehman served as toast masters. Gerh. Schulze and Ted Lehman saw to it that plenty of good juicy barbecue was on hand and Mrs. Selma Mitschke was cook. White, yellow and lavender mums decorated the room.
