

NORTHRUP

A New Arrival.

A stork was seen flying in the direction of San Antonio Wednesday and Thursday came word to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hielscher that a bouncing baby boy had arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Banks (nee Lorine Hielscher) for further care. So Grandma Hielscher up and goes to San Antonio to meet the new grandson. Congratulations to parents, grandparents and great-grandparents.

Visitors with Mrs. Ben P. Schulze Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Willie Kasper and daughter, Mrs. Ed. Schulz and Mrs. ~~Anna Tschatschula~~. Mrs. Schulze is able to sit up in a chair which will be glad news to her friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser visited the C. T. Kaspers at Winchester Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Dunk of Walburg came down Saturday and Sunday they continued on to Moulton in company of Mrs. Henry Dunk, Sr. to visit with the Yaegli's there, cousins of Mrs. Dunk.

Enjoys Birthday.

Miss Lorine Malke enjoyed her birthday with the following present Wednesday: Aug. Schulze, Thford and Adelia Zoch and Clara Weiser and Johnie Synatschk.

Mrs. Emma Zoch visited her daughter Mrs. P. G. Tschatschula last week.

Little Marvin Mertink spent Monday morning with Chas. Tschatschula and wife.