

The Giddings News

October 23, 1942

NORTHRUP

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Kasper and sons of Pt. Arthur accompanied by Theodor Barton stopped by for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser enroute to Winchester for a stay of several days with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kasper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Mitschke are happy over the arrival of a daughter at the home of Mrs. Ernestine Bamsch. Congratulations.

Visitors Sunday afternoon with the Chas. Tschatschula's were Mrs. Emma Mertink and sons, Mrs. Mary Wiesenhuetter, Mrs. Minnie Schulz and daughter Adele, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Noack and son Royce, Marvin Mitschke and Johnie Synatschk.

Mrs. Wiesenhuetter also spent a while with Mrs. Agnes Schiewart Sunday, while Adolf Wiesenhuetter and wife motored to Giddings.

Miss Lorine Malke is spending several weeks with her sister Mrs. Walter Bamsch at Walburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Liepke have moved to El Campo the past week to make their future home.

The Editor and wife called on Mrs. Chas. Tschatschula briefly Friday morning.

How is your Victory Garden, Mr. and Mrs. Reader of this article? Some gardens in our community are already paying dividends in a variety of green vegetables, which will mean better health.