

Northrup News

Polio Coin Collectors

Coin collectors for the polio fund have been placed at convenient places for the public, so please heed the call and give for this worthy cause. Mrs. Hannes and Mrs. Bobo related that Lee County's funds have been entirely exhausted and should therefore be filled in case of more outbreaks. This year the collectors have been placed at Serbin and at St. Paul's Lutheran School at Serbin for your convenience.

Personals

Lt. and Mrs. Troy Nuckols and Marjorie arrived Tuesday from North Carolina and Germany where he and his family had been stationed for the past 3½ years. Lt. Nuckols will leave again next Monday for his new assignment in Washington State.

Mrs. Bertha Mitschke and Marvin and Lt. and Mrs. Troy Nuckols and baby motored to Houston Saturday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. John and Arnold Mitschke.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tschatschula had a surprise visit from their old friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Bosworth of Houston Saturday, who came by and spent a day with them enroute to Austin on business. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gersch also joined them in their visit. Mrs. Bosworth is a life-long friend of Mrs. Gersch and of Mrs. Tschatschula for the past 25 years.

The following spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Weiser: Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. and Johnnie Noack and families, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Vogel and Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Groeschel and family.

John Paulick visited with his brother, Aug. Paulick, Sunday.

The John Paulicks called on the Chas. Tschatschulas briefly Monday.