

The Giddings News

April 21, 1950

NORTHRUP NEWS

Seriously Ill

Mrs. Henry Dunk Sr. was taken seriously ill while visiting her daughter Lillian (Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Tonn) near Mannheim, where she had gone with the intention of resting. Wednesday it was necessary to take her to the Lee Memorial Hospital where she is now under treatment. We hope she will soon be well.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Schulz and family motored to Houston on April 2 to attend the confirmation of her nephew at Trinity Lutheran Church and afterward spent the day with her sister Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schatte. During the day they also visited with their daughter Adelia who is employed there. They report a fine visit and enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Domei and family and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bamsch of Dime Box and Walburg visited the R. H. Malkes Thursday.

Among the visitors here over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mutscher, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Urecht, Lillian Schulze, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur and Edgar Zander and Miss Grace Symm, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Oltman and family of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Oltman and family, Bryan; S/Sgt. C. Hielscher, Ft. Worth; Miss Velma Hielscher, Dallas; Miss Selma Steglich, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schulz and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kessel, all of Austin, and Miss Lois Arndt of Austin, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Farrack and sons of Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl and Walter Droemer and families spent Sunday with the John Paulicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Walther of Warda spent Monday with Mrs. Bertha Holland and Martin Mertink.

Mr. and Mrs. Nitsche of Port Arthur visited with the John Krauses over the holidays.