Mitschke called on the Tschatschulas briefly Monday. | Working for Florist Your reporter enjoyed a nice long talk with John Becker (a local boy) who after the death of both his parents, was obliged to get out into the world to shift for himself. Going to Chicago, he found work there with a florist (Smith's wholesale florist), it being work similar to that to which he was accustomed. He soon was well established and has been with the firm now a good many years. Saving up his earnings he was able this year to buy for himself a new Ford in which he had looked forward to with much anticipation of visiting his brother and an only sister here, besides a host of aunts and uncles. He arrived here the latter part of June. Soon after he arrived he was stricken with appendicitis which was later found to be ruptured and so he has since been mostly confined to bed and to the home of his gracious aunt, Mrs. Selma Becker, who has tenderly nursed him. Now John is up and around again although weak from the ordeal. He looks eagerly toward returning to Chicago and resuming his work there. He is not altogether alone there for his brother Alvin and Martin Farrack, all native Lee Countians, work for the same firm. Ladies Aid Meets The St. Paul's Ladies Aid of Serbin met Thursday from 2:30 to 3:30 at the Parish House with 24 regular members and two visitors, who also became new members. The meeting was opened with scripture reading and a prayer, followed by the business meeting in which it was decided to give the Parish Hall a coat of paint, to buy a new black robe for the pastor, and to serve the Post Oak Circuit Conference which meets here on Sept. 5 and 6. The meeting closed with the birthday song and the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison. Personals Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mitschke helped his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G.
