

The Giddings News

August 25, 1950

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Visitors to Houston

John Becker took his brother Herbert, sister Lydia, and two aunts, Mrs. Bertha Mitschke, and Mrs. Anna Farrack to Houston for a visit from Tuesday until Thursday with the Arnold and John Mitschkes and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Farrack and sons.

Has Birthday

Karen Fricke had a very pleasant surprise in store for her Monday when her mother, Mrs. A. W. Brooks asked in a number of friends to spend the evening. Sandwiches, cake, and refreshments were served.

Personals

Aug. Schulze is spending several days with his niece, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Walther near Warda.

Visitors in the Chas. Tschatschula home over the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Schmidt and Eileen of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Walther of Rabbs Prairie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Malke accompanied Gerhard and Alma Noak and Mrs. Noak to near Dime Box Saturday evening for the birthday celebration of Mrs. Bert Domel and son Ralph.

Floyd Lemons of Austin spent the week-end with his pal Kenneth Ray Weiser here.

Miss Adell Schulz returned to Houston after a five week vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Schulz of Northrup.

Those helping Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Mitschke re-roof their dwelling Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bamsch, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malke, and Erwin and Martin Mitschke. The women did some quilting while the men were busy outside.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Zoch and sons of Winchester spent Saturday evening with the E. A. Dunks.

John Becker left early Wednesday morning for Chicago to resume his job after his recent operation and recuperation at the home of his aunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Malke and sons spent Monday with Mrs. Selma Becker and Adelia and Mrs. Anna Farrack.

Mrs. Selma Becker and Adelia, Mrs. Anna Farrack, John Becker, Theo Reinhardt and family and Miss Minnie Menzel spent awhile Monday evening with the Chas. Tschatschulas while Mrs. Reinhardt visited Mrs. Selma Mitschke.

Mrs. Anna Farrack left Tuesday for Houston to visit with her son Alfred and family.