

The Giddings News

September 29, 1950

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Have New Grandson

The Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt are quite happy over the arrival of a new grandson at the home of their oldest daughter, Margaret and husband at Wharton during the past week. Of course, Grandmother Arndt went down to spend a week with them.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mertink and girls of Houston and Miss Edna Schulze came up for a visit over the past week-end. Miss Edna is spending a while with her parents during the rush of the peanut threshing season.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Schulze and family spent Sunday afternoon with relatives at Warda after church services.

S/Sgt. and Mrs. O. C. Hielscher, Martin and Susan of Ft. Worth and Miss Velma Hielscher of Dallas arrived home with the O. P. Hielscher's late Saturday to attend the Hielscher-Zoch wedding Sunday.

Others attending the Hielscher-Zoch wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tschatschula of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hielscher of Austin, S/Sgt. and Mrs. Milburn Nink of Austin and Miss Adeline Schulze of Houston.

Floyd Lemons of Austin accompanied his Pal Kenneth Ray Weiser home over the week-end. Floyd is in the National Guard unit stationed there, while Kenneth is attending Nixon Clay College.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paulick and Mrs. Walter and Carl Droemer and children spent a while Monday with the Chas. Tschatschulas.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Matthijetz of Port Arthur are spending their vacation with their relatives in and around Serbin and making their night quarters with the Alvin Kurios.