Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Submits to Operation

Mrs. Ed. A. Schatte had to submit to a major operation Friday of the past week. At this writing she was resting fairly easy. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

Birthdays Commemorated

Several birthdays were commemorated Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Emma Schmidt and for namely Mrs. Edwin Schmidt (whose birthday was Oct. 6), Edgar Kurio (Oct. 7), Martin Schmidt (Oct. 8), and Rudie Schmidt of Houston (Oct. 9). Mr. and Mrs. Rudie Schmidt and children came for the week-end. Rudie related to your reporter that he is feeling fairly well again after his 16 months in the hospital. He is able to work a few hours a day and is steadily gaining his strength back. Of these improvements all his friends will be glad to know and hope he will soon be his old self again.

Personals

Guests between church services Sunday with the Chas. Tschatschulas were Mr. and Mrs. John Paulick, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Simmang, and Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hielscher.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnie Vogel and Doris spent Sunday with the Herman Menzels.

Among the many visitors Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Weise and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Menzel, Miss Adella Schulz, Miss Selma Steglich, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zoch, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar and Arthur Zander and family and many more whose names we failed to get.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Domel and family of Dime Box spent Sunday with the R. H. Malkes and attended mission services with them.

Peanut Harvest Weather

The weather is ideal for the harvesting of the peanut crop these days. There will also be some fine peanut hay. Cotton is just about gathered.
