

The Giddings News

January 8, 1953

NORTHRUP NEWS

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Arndt-Holvorsen Wedding

A wedding of much interest the past week was that of Miss Lois Arndt to Douglas Holvorsen of Chicago, Ill. on New Year's Day. The weather was ideal and so was the wedding. Those from Chicago and Oak Park, Ill. attending the wedding were the groom's mother, Mrs. Muriel Holvorsen, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Torland and his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Einar Engebretson and children, John and Mary. From Massachusetts came the newly weds, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Arndt, who were married there on Christmas Day.

Bobbie Droemer spent several days with his grandpa, John Paulick, while his grandma was a patient at Lee Memorial Hospital at Giddings.

Bad colds and the flu are making their rounds over the community causing many a miserable feeling.

Moved To Waco

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Glockzin and family have moved to Waco the past week to make their home for the future. Circumstances here did not allow them to remain here. Mr. and Mrs. Glockzin made many friends during the time they were here and especially so during the past 6 months when their little 4-year-old son Larry was stricken with polio. They will be sorely missed by all of their friends, but all are wishing them luck and happiness in their new undertaking.

Mrs. Emma Heune and Edmund spent awhile Sunday evening with the Chas. Tschatschulas.

Mrs. Mathilda Steglich and son Leroy stopped by the C. Tschatschulas briefly Saturday enroute to their farm near Grassyville.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bamsch and family of Jarrell and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Domel and family of Giddings were recent visitors in the R. H. Malke home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fritsche and little Judy spent New Year's Day with the H. E. Weisers.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric W. Moerbe had their children at home with them for New Year's Day.

Ervin Schulze of Bergstrom Field was home with the E. H. Schulzes Sunday.

Ladies Aid Meets

The Serbin Ladies Aid meets at the parish room Thursday at 2:30 p. m.