

The Giddings News

March 12, 1953

NORTHRUP NEWS

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Reached 65th Milestone

R. H. Malke, Thursday reached the 65th milestone of his life. Those coming to enjoy the occasion with him were Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Menzel, Mr. and Mrs. Walter and Edgar Bamsch and families of Georgetown; Gerhard, Alma and Mrs. Mathilda Noack, Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Domel and family. An enjoyable evening was spent and all are wishing Bob many more happy returns of the day.

Enjoy Magic Trip

The following enjoyed a magic trip Sunday evening by way of home movie reels to Houston's airport, thence to Berlin, Germany and to the Botanical Gardens in Germany by Pfc John B. Gersch Jr. Thence to Inks Dam, above Austin, Sunken Gardens and zoo at San Antonio, Corpus Christi beach, thence back to Giddings to the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Droemer for an Easter egg hunt and birthday party, and to the various beautiful flower yards of the Aug. Zoch's, Mr. and Mrs. Hill and to the home of Mrs. Louise Droemer for a family gathering, through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Droemer, Ruth and Tommie.

Memories were also refreshed of last June 5 Silver Wedding celebration of the J. B. Gerschs Sr., just before J. B. Jr. left for his new assignment in Berlin, Germany.

Those enjoying this hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Noack and Grandmother Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Birke, Mrs. Herbert Schulz, Emil Schulz, the Ernst Moerbes, Miss Nelda Korthauer, the Chas. Tschatschulas, the Henry Droemers, Durwood Fuchs and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gersch.

Personals

Those spending Sunday with the Chas. Tschatschulas were Mr. and Mrs. John Paulick and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Droemer and family, also the Eric W. Moerbe's called briefly.

Mrs. Richard A. Noack had to go to the hospital for several days, as she suffered so many setbacks from the flu. A speedy recovery is wished for her by her many friends.

Mrs. Anna Farrack returned from Houston Friday where she had spent the past several months with her son, Alfred and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Wernecke and Gladys of Houston were up over the week-end for a visit with his brother, Gus and family and Saturday they called on the H. P. Weisers.

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Jaentho (nee Thelma Kasper) are rejoicing over the arrival of a son on Feb. 21. The little brother was welcomed by a 6-year-old sister, Bonnie Sue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Berger and sons, Charles and Mark of Wharton, spent Sunday with her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt.

The Chas. Tschatschulas are enjoying a fine treat these days, a gift of the Bob Helds of Canada, it's a can of creamed honey direct from Ontario.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter and Chas. Weiser and families of Bishop were up Sunday to spend the day with Grandma A. H. Weiser on her birthday. Her children from Austin also came.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Joseph Shannon and baby girl (nee Wanda Schatte of Dallas) are spending several weeks with the Ed Schatte's. Mr. Shannon is now able to be away from the hospital for a longer time, where he had been confined for more than a year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Parker and son of Beaumont visited their mother and grandmother, Mrs. Lula Parker the past few days.