

NORTHRUP NEWS

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Two Sons in Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schatte have 2 sons in the veterans hospitals at present. Herman is in the Naval Hospital in New York, while Andy is in the Veterans Hospital in Marlin. The parents are anxiously awaiting their return home to their loved ones.

Home Nearing Completion

The new comfortable country home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Becker is nearing completion and will be an asset to the neighborhood.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Ann Griffith Lyles to Vernal Ray Little of Miami, Fla. has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob J. Lyles of 706 W. 21st, Austin. The wedding to be the latter part of May.

Visitors From Iowa

The Chas. Tschatschulas experienced a big thrill when Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pharo of Des Moines, Iowa came and spent the night with them on return to Des Moines from Tucson, where they had spent the winter for his health and where they expect to locate in the future. Acquaintance with the Pharos was made 2 years ago when they passed through and stopped briefly for lunch. Mrs. Pharo is a retired school teacher, while Mr. Pharo is a retired sheet metal worker.

A barrel cactus directly from the Arizona desert was presented by the Pharos and will now be growing in Texas.

Birthday Surprise

Emil Steglich of Serbin was pleasantly surprised on his 58th birthday Saturday night, March 21, with a dinner. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nitsche and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Malke and boys, Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schulz, Minna Beisert and Selma Steglich.

Personals

The R. N. Malke's called in the Mrs. Mathilde Noack home Tuesday evening while the Glenn Behrens called on the H. P. Weisers.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Malke, Douglas and Carrol Jean motored to Houston Thursday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Royce Krakosky and Patricia, returning home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulie Zoch and family accompanied by Amanda and Otto Becker Jr. motored to Vernon Friday afternoon to attend the Christening of the Edmund Becker infant daughter there on Sunday.

Mrs. Dunk, sister of Mrs. Harry Mitschke and Mrs. Elford Bigon, underwent a serious major operation at the Bastrop hospital. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

Mrs. H. E. Weiser, accompanied by Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele and Mrs. Anna Farrack, called on Mrs. Chas. Tschatschula Thursday evening.

Arnold Krause of near Sand went to Houston last week to consult a skin specialist there.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Malke Erain and Freddie enjoyed a supper with their old neighbors, the Emil Steglich's Saturday evening.

The Willie A. Zoch's and the E. A. Dunk's motored to Bellville Sunday to spend the day with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Knippa.

The H. P. Weisers motored to Houston Sunday to visit with the Curtis Jaenthos and their new-comer, Little David.

The Chas. Tschatschulas spent awhile Saturday evening with the J. B. Gerschs, for a short visit with the Clarence Tschatschulas and their new great niece, Beverly Ruth, of Houston. This was little Beverly's first long trip to see all the grandparents.