

The Giddings News

April 2, 1953

NORTHRUP NEWS

Mrs. Annie Tschatschula

Have Confirmation Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. John Vogel honored their only daughter, Doris, and her school chum, Marjorie Ann Mertink, with a confirmation day dinner Sunday.

The following enjoyed the day with them: Their pastor, the Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt, their teacher, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Weiser, the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Menzel, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Menzel and family, Martin Menzel, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Vogel and Laura, the Louis Malke, Gus Malke, the Herbert Krauses, the Ludwig Menzels, the Marvin Mutschers, Johnnie Symanks, Rudolf Lorenzs, Mrs. Pauline Schulz, Walter Mertinks, and the Chas. Tschatschulas.

A pork and chicken barbecue dinner with all the accompaniments was served.

Mrs. Louis Medack also gave a dinner for her daughter, Helen, with the brothers and sisters present.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mitschke honored their son Bennie Paul with a confirmation day dinner to which the sponsors and grandparents were asked.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bamach honored their son Melvin with a barbecue dinner Sunday by having in the sponsors and uncles and aunts present.

It's A Boy

It's a big 9 pound boy for Mr. and Mrs. Maxey of here since March 26 at Lee Memorial Hospital. Congratulations.

Mr. Maxey's sister of Luling is spending the week with them.

Bake Sale

Don't forget the bake sale on April 11 by St. Paul's Lutheran Ladies Aid of Serbin.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hielscher and Miss Velma called in the Chas. Tschatschula home briefly Saturday afternoon. Miss Velma spent the past week at home on her vacation.

Mrs. G. P. (Emma) Mitschke is quite sick at this writing in Houston at the home of her son, Alvin and family. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

Mrs. C. A. Falke Sr. and Mrs. Selma Tschatschula were in Northrup Friday.