Tornado Hits

A tornado struck around about our community Tuesday evening around 6 p. m. coming in from the southwest, hitting here and there, and skipped around the Bob Malke home in the form of a horse shoe circling the house and barn but blowing down a pig sty, then skipping over about one half mile and hitting the Weiser Hatchery, unroofing some chicken houses, uprooting and breaking off trees in its path, also taking off the roof off the hammer mill shed, then turned and came back towards the south into the pastures. Around 4½ inches of rain accompanied by some hail fell during and after the tornado struck.

Ed Schulz had the misfortune of losing a fine 2½ year old heifer which was struck by lightning late Tuesday evening when the wind and rain storm from the west hit here.
