

The Giddings Star

August 27, 1953

News from Northrup

Have Joint Birthdays

Mrs. Bert Domel and her only son Ralph enjoyed their birthdays Sunday jointly when the following came to spend several hours with them: Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Domel Sr., Adolf Jr. and Robert, the Emil Noack's, Emil Herzog's, Alwin Schwertner's, Herman Marquardt's, and the Walter Bamsch's all of Walburg. The R. H. Malke's of here and Grandpa and Grandma Aug. Herzog of Giddings. Many more happy returns of the day to you both.

Herman Hohle, 79
Taken By Death

Funeral services were conducted at La Grange, from Koenig's Funeral Home on August 8th for Herman Hohle, 79, who expired at the Fayette Memorial Hospital on Thursday August 6. The Rev. H. A. Traugott officiated and burial was in the Cedar Cemetery.

Mr. Hohle, a retired farmer, was born at Serbin, in Lee County, where he also received his religious training.

About 6 years ago he moved to La Grange, after living in Schulenburg for 18 years. His first wife was Miss Helen Schulze Hohle who died in 1911 near Sand, leaving him with three small sons, for whom he made a living from then on.

Surviving are 3 sons: Gus of Muldoon, Robert of La Grange, and Herbert of Schulenburg, and one grandchild.

He and son Robert lived together at La Grange.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malke and Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele visited with the Chas. Tschatschula's Monday evening.

Mrs. Richard A. Noack is still not very well, and a speedy recovery is wished for her.

Student Marvin E. Tschatschula will deliver the sermon at Serbin Sunday August 30th at 8:30 a. m. in the absence of the local pastor.

Marvin is the youngest son of P. G. Tschatschula and the late Mrs. Tschatschula (nee Boettcher), whose wish it was that he become minister. He will return to St. Louis the following week to resume his studies at the Seminary.

The Louis Malke's were busy as bees Monday getting their peanut crop threshed and baled although the weather was threatening all day.

One of the biggest weddings ever to take place in these parts was that Saturday evening of Miss Otilia Nell Moerbe to R. H. Muegge of Brenham where around 1000 persons gathered for the reception which lasted into the wee hours.