

The Giddings Star

October 15, 1953

News from Northrup

(Held over from last week)

New Windows Installed . . .

The Serbin Congregation is having new steel casement windows installed in the old church this week, replacing the old cedar windows. Although it will take away a lot of the antiqueness of the church, the members hope they will be more practical.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Noack and Gloria Jean, of Houston brought Mrs. Emma Mitschke up Saturday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bamsch where she will be domiciled for the next couple of weeks, while here they also visited his mother, Mrs. Lena Noack, sisters Minnie and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mitschke and Dorothy and also Carl Noack.

Rites of holy baptism were administered to Kelvin Gustav Lehmann Sunday morning by the Rev. A. Arndt. Kelvin is the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Lehmann of Giddings Route 1. Congratulations!

The Raymond Nitsche's of Port Arthur and Elton Krause of Houston were visitors of the John Krause's over Sunday.

Some of our ladies aid ladies attended the W.M.S. rally at Brenham this week, while the Pastor attended Conference at William Penn.

The Otto Becker's family spent Sunday with the Richard Herzog's at Fedor and attended the christening of their little son. Congratulations!