

News from Northrup

A Rare Privilege . . .

In attending services at Warda last Sunday morning and witnessing of the baptism of little Kenneth Ray Schramm, it was noted that the infant's great-grandmother, Mrs. Aug. Schramm was privileged to be the great-grandson's sponsor.

Enjoys Birthday . . .

Mrs. Theresa Gersch enjoyed her birthday at the home of her daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Kubsch Sunday evening where a number of her children and other relatives gathered for an enjoyable evening with her.

It's A BOY . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kalbas are happy over the arrival of their second boy and Karl says: He's going to get down to farming right, now. That he has two boys that will be helping him. Congratulations.

Personals . . .

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gersch Sr. and J. B. Mrs. Emma Moerbe and the Chas. Tschatschula's enjoyed a short trip through Carmine, Round Top, Warrenton, Ruterville and La Grange Sunday afternoon in J. B. Gersch Jr.'s new Ford.

The O. C. Thoresen's, Telford Zoch's, Victor Mattias, Kenneth Ray Weiser and Floyd Lemmons were Sunday guests of the H. P. and A. H. Weiser's.

Rev. A. Arndt delivered the Mission Sermon at Aleman and Pottsville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Matthijetz of Port Arthur who are spending their vacation here at their Country Home attended the Lee County Fair Friday evening in company of his sister Mrs. Alwin Kurio of Serbin.