

The Giddings Star

March 10, 1955

NORTHROP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Mrs. Theresa Ziehr Passes

Funeral services were held Monday, March 7 at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Theresa Ziehr, 70, at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Serbin. Interment was in St. Paul's cemetery. Lerman's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Ziehr passed away at the family residence Saturday, March 5 after being an invalid for a number of years, having lost a leg by amputation and suffering much with the other. She was confined to a wheelchair.

Mrs. Ben Mrosko Passes

Funeral services were held at Elgin Sunday for Mrs. Ben Mrosko (nee Wagner) who passed away at Elgin Friday, March 4. Many will remember her as she and her husband were both reared here at Serbin.

Attend Baptizing

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Schulze and Frances and Mrs. Walter Schulze and Gloria motored to Houston Saturday for the Baptism Sunday of little Madeline Mae, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mitschke (nee Lorine Schulze). They returned home late Sunday.

Surprises Husband

Mrs. Johnny Vogel surprised her husband Saturday evening on his 44th birthday by asking over the following: Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Manzel and Martin, Herman Manzel and family, the Gus Bamschs, Willie A. Zochs, Otto Beckers, Herbert Krause and boys and Edwin Schulz and Olivia.

Celebrates Birthday

George Dunk celebrated his 18th birthday Sunday evening at the home of his uncle, Henry Dunk Jr. by inviting over a number of young folks for a weiner roast. George will graduate from the Giddings High School this spring. He is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk of here.

Personals

Those spending Sunday with the Chas. Tschatschulas were: Miss Minnie Menzel, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Foerster and Herbert, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gersch. The Walter Droemers, Ed Schulz and Olivia and Mrs. Willie A. Zoch, Elenore and Madeline also called briefly.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kirkpatrick and Marcie who are presently stationed at Victoria with the Texas Employment Commission stopped briefly here last Friday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk and the Chas. Tschatschulas. He also took a glimpse at his former place, the A. W. Walker Ranch. All were glad to see them.

Carolyn Faye Weiser has had a tussle with the flu for several days the past week.

Mrs. Gerhardt Manzel and little Elaine and Olivia Schulz spent Friday with Mrs. Chas. Tschatschula. O. P. Hielscher also called briefly.