

The Giddings Star

May 19, 1955

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Congratulations To The Boy

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Gersch (nee Olga Mae Hielscher) on the birthday of another son: Don Charles, since Saturday May 14.

School Picnic

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Serbin will have its annual School Picnic Sunday May 22nd. Services start at 8 a. m. for English and German service at 9:30. Come out, meet your friends and enjoy the day at Serbin.

Mr. Moebus gave the Picnic a boost Saturday. When he and a bunch of school boys as little clowns advertised the picnic in Giddings.

The Ladies Aid will again sponsor a bazaar and bake sale during the day. Beef, pork and mutton barbecue will be available at noon.

Personals

Mrs. Andy Schatte and her three little girls left Wednesday of last week for California to be with her sick grandmother.

The Chas. Tschatschulas spent Monday afternoon with their sick aunt Mrs. Gerhard Biehle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Karisch. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Schnell and family of Giddings and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Biehle of Smithville spent Sunday with them.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brooks have both been somewhat under the weather lately and it is hoped they will be feeling better again soon.

Mrs. Pat Hirsch and Carol Jean called in the W. H. Joiner and G. I. Miertschin homes Thursday in Giddings.

—Robert Beckendorf and sons of Houston spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Red Hirsch to help him get started on a water well. Gerhard and Alma Noack prepared a nice barbecue Supper Saturday evening honoring their mother, Mrs. Mathilda Noack on her birthday. A nice evening was spent and everyone left wishing Mrs. Noack many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bigon and family of Angleton spent the weekend here with their respective parents, the Oscar Schulzes and the Herman Bigons.

The Earl Sandozs spent Sunday with the Theodor Gerschs here.

Mrs. Milton Moerbe, La Grange spent Monday with the Louis Malkes and Mr. Gus.

We are glad to report Mr. Gus Wiesenhuetter somewhat improved after his recent siege of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Vestine Mitschke, Houston spent Saturday here with the Johnnie Mitschkes.

Miss Doris Vogel is somewhat under the weather these days with a summer cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodor Gersch and Walter spent awhile Thursday with their daughter-in-law Mrs. Herman Gersch at the home of the Christopher Schattes, it being her birthday. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Markert spent the weekend with Ed A. Schulz and Olivia.

We are glad to report Oscar Schautschick well on the way to recovery after his recent spell of illness.