

The Giddings Star

July 28, 1955

NORTH MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Feeling Much Better

Friends of Mrs. Milton Moerbe of Serbin will be glad to know that she is feeling much better of late and probably has found relief measures from her agonizer—arthritis. She is planning on a stay at Galveston in the near future and her many friends will want to remember her in prayer.

Enjoys 4th Birthday

Little Miss Carole Jean Malke enjoyed her 4th birthday Friday amidst her little cousins and friends.

Here for Brother's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Halvarson and little Debbie and his mother, Mrs. Halvarson Sr. were here Sunday for the wedding of Miss Joyce Ann Gruetner to James Arndt, brother of Mrs. Halvarson, and also to spend several days with the Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt and Bill, the Chas. Arndts of Austin and the John Boergers of Wharton. They were accompanied on their return trip by the Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt who will also visit their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chapman and son, in North Carolina and will be vacationing until the 18th.

Personals

Mrs. Emil Steglich and Miss Helen visited Mrs. Milton Moerbe Tuesday evening while the Chas. Tschatschulas called on her Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Luecke, accompanied by Mrs. Minnie Carlisle called in the Chas. Tschatschula home Thursday evening.

Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele were hosts for a 6 o'clock dinner Thursday at her home to a number of friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Krakosky and Miss Patricia of Houston spent the weekend here with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Teinert of Port Arthur were up Sunday for the 6th annual Zoch reunion at Giddings.

Among the many visitors here Sunday to attend services and also for the Zoch reunion were the Lester Woyteks and Eddie Zoch of Houston; Mrs. Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Miersehn and family of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. Winkler and son of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Willie Peschke Jr. and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Domaschk and family and Mrs. Moerbe of Giddings, and Herbert Zoch of Austin and Schubert of Fedor.

Carol Jeanne Liberty received rites of holy baptism Sunday morning at Serbin, the Rev. A. Arndt officiating. She is the new sunshine in the Edwin Liberty home near Grassyville.

The Willie Zochs and their two daughters spent Thursday in Houston as guests of the Lester Woyteks and Eddie Zoch.

The Marvin Bergers of Giddings and Lester Woyteks and Bert Ceasaks of Houston spent Sunday with the Willie A. Zochs and also enjoyed a fishing trip together at the Colorado River at Winchester.

The Chas. Tschatschulas visited with Mr. and Mrs. Johnle Biehle, Dorothy and Helen Sunday evening.

Thursday afternoon visitors with the ailing Mrs. G. Biehle at the home of Mrs. John Karusch were Mrs. Martha Biehle, the Bill Walthers, and the Chas. Tschatschulas.