

The Giddings Star

August 18, 1955

Personals

Mrs. H. P. and Mrs. Anna Weiser in company of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Behrens of La Grange motored to Austin Sunday and spent the day with the Telford A. Zochs. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weiser of Bishop also spent the day with the Zochs.

Miss Minna Menzel visited Mrs. Anna Weiser Monday evening, while the Theodor Reinhardt visited with their folks at Winchester.

Bubba and Carol Jean Hirsch spent Tuesday with the Chas. Tschatschulas while their mother visited her step-mother in Rosenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Zoch of Port Arthur were up with relatives over the weekend.

Mrs. Marie Winkler spent the past week with her brother, John Mitschke Sr., near here.

Ministerial Student Ray Martens was the speaker for the English services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Serbin Sunday morning, and also conducted the Bible class in the absence of the local pastor.

Friends of Mrs. Louise Droemer of San Antonio will be sorry to hear that she has recently been critically ill, but is now recuperating slowly. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hirsch attended the funeral of her step-mother, Mrs. Fain at Rosenberg Thursday. She passed away at a Galveston Hospital Tuesday morning. Heartfelt sympathy is extended.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schatte and Dorine of Abilene were weekend visitors in the Ed A. Schatte home.

Mrs. Andy Schatte and girls returned Friday from an extended visit with her parents out in California and are now residing in the John Teinert apartments in Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zander and little Miss Zander of Houston were weekend guests of their mother, Mrs. Marie Svmm.

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

An Inch Rain

Our community received an inch of rain early Wednesday morning. But more is needed to fill stock ponds which are very low at this time.

Road Under Construction

The tie-in road between the farm-to-market road beyond Grassyville and the Northrup farm-to-market road 448 is now under construction. Work was begun last Monday.

Ladies Aid Met

The Serbin St. Paul's Ladies Aid met on Thursday, Aug. 4. In the absence of the pastor, the aid president, Mrs. H. P. Weiser read the 144 Psalm. In the business meeting the buying committee gave a report on their findings. Roll was called. Dues paid and the birthday song was sung for a number of ladies. Mesdames Herman and Marvin Mutscher served. Eighteen members answered the call.

Miss Carolyn Fay Weiser returned Friday from Austin where she vacationed a week.

Janis and Ralph Domel spent Tuesday here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malke while their parents were on a business trip to San Antonio.

We are sorry to report John Mertink pretty much under the weather these days, but is hoped that his present treatments will soon have him on his feet again.

The Chas. Tschatschulas visited in the Paul E. Liberty home Sunday afternoon.