

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Visitors From Vernon

Mr. and Mrs. August Rummel of Vernon (nee Schoppa) were visitors round about our community, Giddings, Winchester and Warda, Sand and Taylor the past week celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. Quoting Mrs. Rummel, "Things and places have sure changed in the past 25 years since we have not visited here. Why, Giddings," she related, "was only a good sized town, now, it's a small city, we couldn't believe our eyes."

They spent Saturday afternoon with the Ben Reinhardt's. He being her deceased mother's brother. (She was Marie Reinhardt) formerly of Sand.

Another Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steglich (nee Schramm) are the happy parents of a fine healthy baby daughter since Thursday Aug. 25th. The little Miss is welcomed by two older sisters. Congratulations.

Homecoming for Sons

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Krakosky of Warda gave a barbecue supper as a homecoming for their two sons Milton and Charles, Saturday evening at the family home to which about 150 people were asked to partake and enjoy the evening with them. Milton served over in Korea and has been discharged about nine months or so, and Charles was discharged the latter part of May, now both are back at their former places of employment in Houston.

In the absence of the local pastor John Herzog, the Rev. Walter Streicher was asked to meet with them as master of ceremonies. With the singing of several select hymns, scripture reading and a special Prayer of Thanksgiving for their safe return the evening passed all to quickly and soon it was time to bid our hosts adios again.

The Rev. Streicher kept everyone interested with his humorous expressions as also did Mr. C. T. Kasper in relating of various instances that he could recall from his childhood.

Those from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Oswald and Clinton Walther, The Carl Zochs of Port Arthur, the Harry Hempels of San Antonio, Mrs. Pittsford, son and daughter-in-law of Austin, the Royce Krakoskys, Leroy and Mrs. Steglich, C. M. Tschatschulas, Miss Ruby Winkler and Chas. and Milton Krakoskys, all of Houston; besides a host of relatives, neighbors and friends from the immediate vicinity.

Ladies Aid

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid, Serbin meets at the Parish Room on Thursday, Sept. 1, at 2:30 p. m.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wacker of Winchester spent Sunday afternoon with the Chas. Tschatschulas.

Mr. and Mrs. August Menzel and Louis visited with Mr. Menzel's sister, Mrs. Anna Weiser Sunday.

Carolyn Weiser boarded the bus for Austin Friday and from there accompanied the Telford A. Zochs on a trip to Bishop for a weekend with the Walter Weisers.