

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Suffers Eye Injury

Herbert Jurk suffered a painful hurt to his eye when a piece of hot steel flew off penetrating his eye while using his power emory lately. He is much better at this writing.

Attend Funeral

The Chas. Tschatschulas attended the funeral of Mrs. John (Selma Kasper) Tschatschula at Warda Thursday and afterwards visited their sick aunt, Mrs. Theresa Biehle at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Karisch briefly.

Bought Farm

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold H. Krause and little Janie have purchased the John Krause farm from Mrs. Krause and some changes are being made. Mrs. Krause will continue to keep her home with her son and family.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. George Danheim and son have quit work at the Weiser Hatchery, have moved to Giddings and found other employment. The hatchery here has shut down operations for the present.

The Chas. Tschatschulas, Mrs. J. B. Gersch and J. B. Jr. and Mrs. Theresa Gersch spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Ernest Moerbe at Giddings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Schatte attended the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Selma Tschatschula at Warda Thursday.