

The Giddings Star

September 15, 1955

NORTHROP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Girl for Markerts

An 8 pound girl arrived for further care to the happy parents Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Markert of Dime Box (nee Alice Schulz) of here. The little Miss will answer to the name of Carrol Jean. Congratulations!

Those On The Sick List

Those on sick list in and about our community are: Mrs. Gilbert Weise, who suffered an appendectomy Tuesday. Miss Francis Schulze, who has been ailing for quite some time now, but whose condition has turned serious over the past week. John Mertink is back home from John Sealy at Galveston, but yet under constant observation of his local physician. Mrs. Milton Moerbe also home from John Sealy, Galveston, but here we can report favorably that she is much improved. Mrs. John Paulick is coming along O. K., and Oscar Schulz is also doing O. K. and home again from John Sealy.

Many Visitors Here

Among some of the visitors here Sunday with their respective folks were, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Groeschel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Menzel, the Leroy Steglichs, two married sisters, husbands and families of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moebus, all of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. John Boerger and family of Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gersch and family of Dallas and perhaps others.

School Opens

St. Paul's Lutheran School opened its doors Tuesday morning for its coming school year.

Birthday Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kurio gave a supper on Sunday honoring Mr. Kurio on his birthday to which about 25 families were asked.

70th Birthday

Mrs. R. H. Malke enjoyed her 70th birthday Friday Sept. 2, with the following coming to spend the evening: Mr. and Mrs. Bert Domel and family, the Albert Iselts, Louis Malkes, Emil Miertschins, Johnnie and Albert Mutschinks, Alvin Mertinks, Emma Mertink, Selma and Adele Becker, Mrs. Mathilde Noack, and Gerhard and Alma, Carl Noack; Linda Mutschink and Mary Ann Miertschin. Refreshments and lunch was served. Many more happy birthdays was wished Mrs. Malke.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dunk in Giddings Sunday evening.

Mrs. Edwin Unger Jr. accompanied her father Ed Schatte to Houston Monday where he went for a checkup at the M. D. Anderson Clinic.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Schatte and family of Vanderbilt visited with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schatte Sunday.

Mrs. Geisler of Houston spent several days with the Hirschs here.

Alwin G. Schulze was able to return home to his family after a week's stay at the local hospital.

Ed Schatte has to report back to M. D. Anderson on the 12th for a thorough checkup.

Mrs. Alma Krause and Ellen had Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Zoch and family and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Krause of Houston home with her over the Labor Day weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Purvis and family spent the weekend with her brother, the A. H. Hirschs here.

Mrs. Clarence Schulze spent the week with her in-laws, the Alwin G. Schulzes.

Brand new baby girls have arrived for the Chas. Arndts of Austin, and the Walter Kieschnicks of Winchester. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Becker and son and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mitschke and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Medack visited their respective folks, the Martin Beckers and Mrs. Louise Medack.

The Max Kurios and Chas. Tschatschulas spent Sunday afternoon with the John Paulicks.