NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

The peanut harvest is in full swing around our communities these days, one neighbor helping the other.

Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard O. Nock observed their silver wedding with a barbecue supper at their new farm home Saturday evening with their relatives and friends coming to wish them many more happy returns of the day.

Six Grandmothers

Not many babies can boast of having six grandmothers as can little Marcus Dale Behrens. They are, Mrs. H. P. Weiser, Mrs. Martin Behrens, Mrs. Emilie Koenning, Mrs. C. T. Kasper, Mrs. Anna Weiser and Mrs. Hy. Behrens. Who can beat that?

Waltham League Plays

The St. Paul's Lutheran Waltham Leaguers of Serbin presented three short plays for the entertainment of the public in the school yard Sunday evening, which was attended by a large crowd from near and far. Every one was glad to see this fine turn-out despite the threatening weather, especially the leaguers, since it was their first such attempt at this sort of entertainment. But we are hoping not the last. Your reporter is sure everyone present enjoyed the plays and will be looking forward to more of such clean and wholesome entertainment here.
