MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Vogel celebrated their silver wedding Saturday evening with a pork and chicken barbecue supper at their home midst their relatives and friends. Their pastor, the Rev. A. Arndt spoke on their wedding text of 25 years ago, Isaiah 61, 10-11.

After the address by the pastor, the evening was enjoyed by the rendition on select hymns both, in the English and German language. Among the guests coming for the festive occasion were: Mrs. Louise Menzel of Wilson, Texas. The Telford Zochs, and Annie Menzel of Austin, the Fred Weisers of Rockdale, the Eddie Noacks and Ludwig Menzels of Houston, also the Lester Woyteks.

Its A Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Held (nee Adele Schulz) of Fisherville, Ontario, Canada are rejoicing over the arrival of a 7 lb. 12 oz. baby girl since Oct. 16th. The little Miss will answer to the name of Pamela Ruth, and is welcomed by a 2-year old brother, Elson Edward. Grandparents are Ed A. Schulz of here and Mr. and Mrs. Elson Held of Fisherville, Canada. Congratulations.

Ladies Aid To Meet

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid of Serbin will meet Thursday at 2:30 p. m. at the Parish Room.

And Friday being College Day at Austin, many will perhaps want to go and bring their canned goods for the College Kitchen.

Nearing Completion

The Farm-To-Market road from Bastrop County line to Lee County under construction since late summer is nearing completion and will be quite an asset for all concerned, but mainly for the school buses which are having to travel it twice a day.
