

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

(Delayed)

30th Wedding Anniversary

The children of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk secretly arranged for a nice surprise on the eve of their parents 30th wedding anniversary Tuesday evening. Those enjoying this festive occasion were their children: Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Zoch (nee Alice Dunk) and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mittasch (nee Junelle Dunk) and girls and George Dunk at home.

Their eldest daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mertink and family did not come.

Others present were the Alwin Dunks, Robert Dunks, the Rudolph Tonns, Ben, Herman, Willie and Melvin Zochs, H. P. Weisers, and Grandmother Weiser, The Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt, the A. E. Moebus, Louis and Gus Malke, Ernest Oltmanns, John Mittasch and the Chas. Tschatschulas.

A lunch consisting of sandwiches, cake, cookies along with hot coffee and punch was served, and refreshments throughout the evening. Many nice and useful gifts were received. Congratulations.

Surprised?

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malke were really surprised Tuesday afternoon when their two cousins, Mrs. Theresia Liepke and Selma Beissert, along with Mrs. Amalie Karcher and Theresia Schroeder came on their 44th wedding anniversary to spend awhile with them.

In Car Wreck

The Paul E. Libertys and Miss Hermine were in a car wreck near La Grange Thursday afternoon on their way home. Mrs. Liberty and daughter escaped unhurt with only a bad case of shock and bruises. But Mr. Liberty was thrown from the car and was hospitalized for a day and night at La Grange. The extent of damage to the car has not been learned. It is hoped they will soon be O. K. again.

Escapes With Bruises

Gerhard Menzel escaped with a bad bump in the back and bruises Saturday at their home while shucking corn when a stack of baled hay gave way and came toppling down on him. But he managed to crawl out from under it and he is feeling better again.

Personals

The Chas. Tschatschulas spent Wednesday on Pin Oak with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Paulick, Mr. Paulick is very slightly improving. Others calling during the day were: Baldwin Steinbach, and Mrs. Ed. Nink and daughter.

A number of Serbin St. Paul's Walther Leaguers motored to Austin Sunday afternoon.

The Moerbes of Serbin and the Eddie Laakes enjoyed a turkey dinner Sunday with the Ernst Moerbes at Giddings.

Mrs. Pat Hirsch and family motored to Houston Saturday to spend Sunday with her husband and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bigon and family spent the weekend here with the Oscar Schulzs and the Herman Bigons at Giddings.

The Oscar and Alfred Schulzs' enjoyed a Turkey supper with the G. I. Miertschins Friday evening at Giddings.

Mrs. Richard A. Noack and Mrs. Kubsch spent Sunday with Mrs. H. B. and Milton Moerbe at Serbin.

The Carl Teinerts of Port Arthur spent the weekend here with their relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Gussie Zoch and family have moved in with Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Vogel near Sand Community to make their future home. The Noack place vacated by the Zochs will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herzog in the near future. We welcome both these young families into our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Malke and Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele enjoyed a turkey supper with the Bert Domels in Giddings Friday evening.

Mrs. Pat Hirsch and Carrol Jean accompanied her mother-in-law Mrs. Hirsch to San Antonio Monday and spent the day there, returning late that evening.

The Chas. Tschatschulas spent awhile Sunday afternoon with his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Wacker in Winchester.