

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

HAPPY NEW YEAR

A most prosperous and Happy New Year to the staff of The Star and its readers is the wish of your reporter.

Fine Christmas Program

Our hats off to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Moebus and The Rev. A. Arndt and the pupils of St. Paul's Parochial School for a splendid Christmas program well rendered. The church was filled to capacity for all services and many visitors came to view the decorations put up by the school children and the Walther Leaguers.

Boy For Kurlo's

It's a boy for the Marvin Kurios (nee Dorothy Weiser) born on Dec. 19th named Dennis Glenn. Congratulations.

New Granddaughter

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kappler are the grandparents of their first granddaughter which arrived for further care at the home of their daughter (Ruth) Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lehmann at Warda Sunday. Congratulations.

Extend New Year's Greetings

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Glockzin of Route 7, Waco and their family extend New Year's Greetings to all of their many friends here including the School childrens old school chums at Serbin.

Ladies Aid Social

The following Ladies were hostesses at the annual Christmas Service Friday evening at the Parish Room: Mesdames Herman and Marvin Mutscher, Louis Malke, A. E. Moebus, Emil Miertschin, and Monroe Mertink. They spared no efforts in making it a pleasant evening. Supper was served from individual candle lit tables and afterwards a gift exchange from a beautiful decorated blue lit Christmas tree was enjoyed. The men enjoyed dominoes.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Poinick of Abilene (sister of Mrs. Arnold Krause) are the happy parents of a fine happy baby girl named Dorothy Jean. Congratulations. Mrs. Krause and little Janie have just returned from there.

A speedy recovery is wished for Mrs. John F. Schauschick, who submitted to an operation recently. She is doing fine and returned home for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Menzel and Louis and the Melvin Zochs spent Tuesday with Herbert Krause and boys.

Mrs. Rubin Becker is confined to her bed for awhile, suffering with a blood clot in her leg. A speedy recovery is wished for her.

Mrs. John Paulick returned home Thursday after a week's convalescing at her daughter Mary Beth's home. Mrs. Chas. Tschatschula spent Thursday with her parents.

Friends of Mrs. Milton Moerbe, Serbin, will be glad to know that she is so much improved that she is able to turn in bed alone and also to eat by herself, which she had not been able to do in around 2 years. Quoting Mrs. Moerbe: "At least I can live happy now even though I am crippled."

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Moerbe (nee Dorothy Malke) and family of La Grange visited with her father Gus Malke and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Malke and family Sunday.

The Chas. Tschatschulas visited with their cousin Mr. and Mrs. John Karisch Sunday Afternoon.

The Gus Mitschkas of Austin spent Monday on their farm near Sand.

Among the many Christmas visitors with their respective folks were: The Bill Chapmans of North Carolina, The Geo. Hataways from Alabama, The John Boergers of Wharton, the Chas. Arndts and Bill of Austin, the Edgar Zanders, Herbert Zochs, Elmer and Raymond Nitsches, Paul and Elton Krauses, Aug. Schuberts, Eddie Nocks, Jessie Weise, Clarence and Eldor Schulzes, Arthur Nitsch, the Alwin Domaschks, and O. G. Kurios.

The Martin G. Miertschins had all their daughters and husbands and fiancées home with them for Christmas.

The Bill Chapmans left early on Dec. 26 for their home in North Carolina after spending the week in Texas with her parents the Rev. and Mrs. A. Arndt.

Friends of Mrs. Martha Blebas will be glad to know that she is able to be out again after cracking her leg bone in a fall at her place of employment early in October.

men early in October.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hielscher and Mrs. Selma Paulick visited with the Chas. Tschatschulas Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Pat Hirsch and children spent from Wednesday until Friday in Houston with relatives and friends.

The Harry Mitschkes visited with the Robert Mitschkes in La Grange Friday evening.

The Ernst Gerlachs of Mannheim visited with the Chas. Tschatschulas on Christmas Day, while Martin Schmidt and the Albert Krauses called briefly Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Purvis and family of Houston spent Christmas with her brother the A. H. Hirschs here.

The John Paulicks had all their children home with them on Christmas Day. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. and Walter Droemer, the Chas. Tschatschulas and Bill Droemer of A & M College.

The E. H. Schulzes also had their children home with them. The Elmer Nitsches and Alton Schulzes of Houston, the Wilbert Schulzes and Martin Schulzes of Dallas and the Eryin Schulzes of Austin.

The Theodor Gerachs spent Christmas with their children in Giddings.

The G. M. (Butch) Winklers of Abilene spent Christmas here with the A. H. Krause's, and the Rudie Schulzes and the Winkler Bros. at Fedor.

The Rudie Schmidts of Houston and Johnnie Schmidts of Temple visited with Martin Schmidt and the Edwin Schmidts here.

Clarence Schulze celebrated his birthday at home with his parents the Alvin G. Schulzes

Christmas eve, with the following in attendance: his wife, the Arthur Nitschs and Eldor and Walter Schulzes.

Alfred Frellop Jr. of Concordia College, Austin is spending his Christmas vacation with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Frellop Sr. and boys.

The Louis Malkes and his father, Gus, spent Christmas with the John Kubschs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Zoch accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Alford Zoch and daughter to Rockdale Monday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Noack and the Riems family.