

The Giddings Star

February 9, 1956

NEWS FROM . . .

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHULA

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Becker of Serbin are the happy parents of a fine baby boy since Tuesday, Jan. 31st. Congratulations. This is the couple's first child and a new resident for Serbin. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Alwin Mertink and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Becker of Serbin.

Brrr—Was It Cold

The weather has been very disagreeable for several days the past week not only for humans but also for live stock that had no shelter and very little feed. However it seems, more stock water was caught and the earth is more saturated now, which should make for a good growing season.

Thanks

Your Community Polio chairman wishes to thank each and everyone that contributed to The March of Dimes Drive. Let's hope that our communities escape any attacks.

Ladies Aid Meets

Due to the inclement weather the past week, the St. Paul's

Ladies Aid plans to meet this Thursday, Feb. 9, at 2:30 p. m. William Lawrence Buvinghausen

Funeral services were conducted from Trinity Lutheran Church, Houston, Thursday for William L. Buvinghausen, a former Houstonian, who had moved to Ft. Stockton several years ago to operate a Motel. He died suddenly while visiting his daughter in Altus, Okla.

He was a former painting contractor with two of his brothers from 1942 to 1953 in Houston.

He was a brother of Mrs. Paul (Erna) Zoch, daughter-in-law of Mrs. G. G. Zoch of Giddings but formerly of here. Rev. Oliver R. Harms officiated.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graf of Vernon made a brief stop over Friday evening at her sister and brother; Miss Martha and Andrew Mertink. They were joined awhile by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mertink and Marjorie Ann. Saturday they continued on to Galveston to visit their daughter Ruby, and to visit with other relatives in Houston.

Mrs. Pat Hirsch was somewhat under the weather for several days the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Weiser spent Thursday night in Winchester with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Kasper who are both sick with the flu. Mrs. Weiser remaining over Friday. But both are somewhat improved at this writing.

Visitors here over the weekend were: Mr. and Mrs. Eldor Schulze, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krause and family and Mrs. Mathilde Steglich, all of Houston and the Chas. Arnds and Bill Arndt of Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Handrick and son of Thorndale were recent visitors of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Handrick and Mrs. Marie Winkler.

Little Elaine Kratse has been somewhat under the weather for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Moerbe and family of La Grange and Herman Menzel and family spent Monday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Louis Malke and family and grandpa, Gus Malke.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerh. Menzel and Martin and Herman Menzel and family took dinner with the Johnie Vogels Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Schmidt and family of Giddings visited his old stomping grounds at Northrup awhile Sunday afternoon.

Linda Laye Mutschink is very proud of her new little cousin, Gary Wayne, Becker, at Serbin these days.