

The Giddings Star

February 23, 1956

NORTHRUP

MRS. ANNIE TSCHATSCHIULA

(delayed from last week)

Mrs. Anna Kappler Schlottman

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from Grace Lutheran Church at Brenham for Mrs. Anna Kappler Schlottman, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Kappler, and an older sister of Mrs. Marie Symm and Otto Kappler of here. Mrs. Schlottman had been in ill health for a number of years, but bedfast since early last summer. She passed away at Brenham Friday. Heartfelt sympathy is extended.

65th Birthday

Miss Selma Steglich enjoyed her 65th birthday Friday with a number of her relatives and friends coming. Among them were Mrs. Ella Martens, Mrs. G. I. Miertschin, and Mrs. Bob Nitsche and several others. A belated happy birthday is extended by her many friends—Miss Selma has lent many a helping hand not only in her immediate family circle but also among friends of a wide circle, she is not very well now, suffering with severe arthritis and surely her many friends will want to remember her now.

30th Birthday

Louis Malke enjoyed his 30th birthday Tuesday evening with the following coming: The John Kutsch's, Rudie Pietsch's, Mrs. Theresa Gersch, Herman Mense, E. A. Dunk's, Herm. Mitasch's, Willie Malke, Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele. Lunch and refreshments were served.

Ladies Aid Meets

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid, Serbin, met on Thursday, Feb. 9 at 2:30 p. m. at the Parish Room with 27 members present. Rev. Arndt opened the meeting with a scripture passage and prayer. The discussion was on Foreign Missions and their advantages and disadvantages.

Our new chairman, Mrs. Marvin Mutscher presided. The Sunday School partitioning curtains were reported ready to hang and the butane heaters and tank reported ready to be installed. Several other projects were proposed, but had to be tabled at the present time. The reading of the previous meeting were read and approved. The dues paid and the birthday song for those having birthday this month concluded the meeting with the Lord's Prayer in unison. Hostesses for this month were Mrs. H. P. Weiser and Mrs. A. Arndt. For next month there will be three hostesses: Mrs. Otto and Selma Becker and Mrs. Elford Bigon.

Personals

The Gus Liepkes of El Campo and Albert Liepke of Port Arthur visited with Mrs. Theresa Leipke and the Martin Liepkes at Giddings with the A. E. Moebus' and Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele Monday.

Chas. Malke's of Port Arthur spent from Wednesday until Saturday of his vacation here with the R. H., Louis, Gus and Willie Malke, Mrs. Selma Becker and Adele and the Willie Zoch's, Bert Domels and Martin Liepkes.

The Alvin Kessel's of Austin spent Sunday with the Aug. Kessels and grandmother Kessel, who was able to attend church services again for the first time since the early part of the year when she was hurt in a fall at her home.

The T. A. Zoch's and Howard Gene of Austin spent Sunday here with Mrs. A. H. Weiser and Mrs. Marie Zoch at Giddings.

The Chas. Tschatschulas spent Sunday with the Martin Krakoskys at Warda.

A. W. Walker, Robert Beckendorf and A. H. Hirsch of Houston spent the weekend here.

A. H. Hirsch is busy every weekend on the construction of his new barn on his farm.

The Chas. Tschatschulas enjoyed the company of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Herbrich Friday evening, while Ed Schulz and Olivia called Thursday evening.

The Walter Mitschkes of Warda spent Monday with the Herman Mitschkes to help butcher a porker.

The Louis Malke and Gus, attended little Jimmie Moerbe's birthday Wednesday evening at La Grange.

Little Billie Krause has been suffering with a cold virus for more than a week, according to his daddy, Albert Krause, who along with Theodor Hohle called on the Chas. Tschatschulas briefly Tuesday.

H. P. Weiser is somewhat under the weather with a bad cold these days. Rev. A. Arndt also was tussling with a relapse Sunday.

Robert Mersiovsky is on a 30-day rest period from his duties at Emmrich's Feed Mill.