Bake Sale

The St. Paul's Ladies Aid, Serbin will have a bake sale Saturday, March 17, from 10 a. m. until sold at the Giddings Meat Market, consisting of homemade breads, coffee cakes with cheese and sugar toppings.

Anyone in the congregation wishing to donate some baked goodies or bread to the sale is asked to bring it to the parsonage early Saturday morning on March 17 where it will be picked up. —The Committee

It's A Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Bigon (nee Blondina Schulz) of Angleton are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby boy. Grandparents are: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schulz of Serbin and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bigon of Giddings. Congratulations.

Asset To Community

An asset to our Community will be the new paved loop around by St. Paul's Lutheran Church tying in with the Farm-to-Market road here at Northrup with the newly constructed Bastrop County line road with the Farm-to-Market road near the church.

The right-of-way has been cleared, and all fences reset the past week and the road crew will be busy hauling gravel this week, preparatory for the final tar topping.

Attend Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Dunk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dunk Jr., Robert Dunk, Mrs. Erwin Zoch of Winchester and Mrs. Dan Mickan of Walburg attended the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. Ernst Dunk at Port Arthur Friday. Mrs. Dunk had been in failing health for a long time. Heartfelt sympathy.

Old Friends Meet

It was nice meeting and renewing old friendships with Mrs. Lydia Reinhardt Zoch of Vernon, Sunday at church. Mrs. Zoch had come especially to be with her father, John Reinhardt, at La Grange, who's 80th birthday the children celebrated with him Saturday, March 10. Mrs. Zoch's mother was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Bigon and so she has many relatives here around Serbin. Mrs. Zoch also attended St. Paul's Parochial School here and her many school chums of yesteryear were glad to see her.

Visit Children

Mr. and Mrs. Willie A. Zoch and girls motored to Houston early Sunday to spend the day with the Lester Woytek's and Eddie W. Zoch there.

New Granddaughter

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Durrenberger Sr. have a brand new granddaughter at the home of their daughter Clara Velma and husband at Austin since Saturday, March 3. The little Miss is welcomed by two other sisters. Congratulations.
