

The Giddings News

October 7, 1921

PAIGE LOCALS

Special Correspondence to the News

The body of Private Richard Kissmann arrived in the town of Paige last Friday morning. Private Kissmann died on the battlefield, his entire left side being torn away by a large shell. Interment took place in the Manheim cemetery.

Mr. Erhard Ebner spent the last week in Austin with friends and relatives.

The committee on Good Roads had a meeting Saturday afternoon and decided to let the contracts for road building, and work will begin soon.

Mr. Lewis Grant of Giddings was in town awhile Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Earl Hill spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. Milburn Adkins.

Mrs. Raschke spent a part of last week with Mrs. Kessel.

Miss Bernice Erwin is in Austin attending school.

Judge J. B. Price and Commissioner Bruno Hasler of Bastrop were in town Saturday to attend the road meeting.

The High Hill school opened Monday Oct. 3, with Miss Ruth Lowden as teacher.