

The Giddings News

November 4, 1921

PAIGE LOCALS

Special Correspondence to the News

November has made its appearance at last, and it came clear and cool—almost cool enough to make the hogs dread its coming.

Mr. Eddie and Miss Nellie Pauls motored to Giddings Friday night to visit friends.

Miss Viola Fuchs has gone to Austin to work during the winter.

Mr. Marcus Banks of Austin was in town last week.

Misses Pearl and Maud and Mr. Morgan Mobley of Lexington came thru Paige Saturday en route to see their parents near Mesquite. They were accompanied by their friend Miss Dickerson.

Mr. Fritz Raschke is in Austin at this writing.

Mr. Oscar Mattiza has gone to Temple to work.

Several Paige people attended the box-supper at Mesquite lately.

Miss Emma Zander spent the week-end with home folks at Paige.

Miss Rosa Schultz has gone to begin her duties as teacher in a school near Austin.

Mr. J. H. Mobley of Fair Oaks was in town Monday.

Well I have "scrapped" and didn't get much news so I will quit. Bye, bye.