

The Giddings News

December 7, 1923

Paige Locals

Farmers about here received plenty of rain.

Many turkeys lost their heads for Thanksgiving.

A crowd of young people gathered at Mr. Max Mittag's Thanksgiving night and danced. Many could not come on account of the mud.

Mr. Willie Werner, his mother, and his family from Burton visited Mr. Max Jenke's Saturday.

Tom Hartmann and family spent Thanksgiving at Alvin Jenke's.

A porch was built on the Long Branch school house. Cold weather will soon be here, so they will give it a coat (of paint).

Mr. Oscar Jenke gave a dance and a large crowd was present. People came from High Hill, Lexington, Long Branch, Fedor and Paige.

Arthur Sigmund went to Manheim Thursday.

A Subscriber