BENEFIT RECITAL

The Post Oak Homemaking Department recently sponsored a musical recital at the school auditorium and a reception in the Homemaking Dept. after the recital.

The persons appearing on the program were B. Jewel Douglass, soprano soloist, who is now a junior in high school working to receive her superior Homemaking degree this year; S. T. King, a ninth grade student; and the school's female quartet composed of Ruth Harris, Jerlene Colvin, Catherine Williams and B. Jewel Douglass. These persons were accompanied by A. B. Witherspoon, music director.

The recital was attended by approximately 250 persons from the local community, adjoining communities, Giddings, Somerville, and Caldwell.

The benefits will go to help sponsor a school band.

During the reception those persons appearing on the program and the advanced homemakers composed the receiving line, from which the guest passed to a table decorated with red roses and received fruit punch and cookies, served by Eloise McCowan, Mary Guyton, and B. M. Douglass.
