Banquet at Post Oak

The New Homemakers and New Farmers of Post Oak High School held their annual father-son and mother-daughter banquet in the school auditorium on Tuesday night, May 30.

The banquet began with the New Homemakers opening ceremony, after which the group was entertained by the quartet, guest speaker, and also some who rendered vocals and solos. The guest speaker encouraged the parents and students to work with the organization.

A representative from the New Homemakers and New Farmers cited the activities they had participated in during the past year and expressed the pleasure in working with the group.

The menu consisted of baked turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, potato salad, and fruit punch.

The favors were red roses for the ladies and cotton bolls for the gentlemen. The plates were decorated with the colors of the two organizations, blue and white and black and gold. The center of interest was red roses and the rising sun. Each is a symbol of the organizations.

Approximately 80 individuals attended the banquet.
